Pulau Pinang

Penang island is aptly called the 'Pearl of the Orient' for all it has to offer its visitors. From crossing the Penang Bridge, taking a trishaw ride around Georgetown or riding up Penang Hill by train, visitors of the island can discover numerous Malaysian heritage landmarks strewn around the cityscape.

Outside of the city, Batu Ferringhi offers beachgoers sandy beaches and blue waters amidst the splendour of sun-kissed palm trees. Sumptuous cuisines in numerous local food stalls and seafood restaurants await to be feasted upon. Both locals and tourists will enjoy this island experience if they care to first truly experience it!
